A Brief Definition of Leaders & Goals of Leaders

A leader is someone who has the ability to garner respect and support of other people for the purpose of accomplishing particular goals and objectives.

The goals of ordained leaders at First Afrikan Church are

LOVE First Afrikan members to God through Christ, themselves, Afrikan people, and others.

LEAD in spiritual, social, economic, and political needs of Afrikan descendants, the poor, and marginalized.

PROVIDE First Afrikan members and visitors with regularly scheduled opportunities for sacred worship, bible study, prayer, celebration of the sacraments, and communalship.

PRAY with and for First Afrikan members, visitors and friends and to conscientiously strive to meet their spiritual and emotional needs, especially during times of grief and tribulation

EQUIP the people to understand the relationship between the Christ faith and Afrikan culture, and to assure that members, frequent visitors and friends are empowered to live out their beliefs wherever they are

COUNSEL the people of God in the giving of time, talent and money to support the ministries of the church

The Role and Responsibility of Elders & Deacons at First Afrikan Church

First Afrikan Church is an Afrikan centered ministry that embraces and filters our interpretation of Christian faith through an Afrikan worldview. To this end, our context for theology is liberation and restoration and our view of our spirituality includes practical application and ideal attainment.

In accordance with the "Book of Order" for the Presbyterian Church (USA), First Afrikan Church nominates and elects its Elders & Deacons to perform as an active and committed officer of the Church Session and as an active and committed member of the Church's Deacon Board.

The Role & Responsibility of ELDERS: Book of Order (2007-09) G-6.0300 G-6.0301
Spiritual Practice

As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament Church provided persons with particular gifts to share in governing and ministry.

G-6.0302 Governmental Responsibilities

Elders are chosen by the people. Together with ministers of the Word and sacrament, they exercise leadership, government, and discipline and have responsibilities for the life of a particular church as well as the church at large, including ecumenical relationships. They shall serve faithfully as members of the GCE

G-6.0303 Gifts and Requirements Elders should be persons of faith, dedication, and good judgment. Their manner of life should be a demonstration of the Christian gospel, both within the church and in the world.

G-6.0304 Specific Responsibilities

It is the duty of elders, individually and jointly, to strengthen and nurture the faith and life of the congregation committed to their charge. Together with the pastor, they should encourage the people in the worship and service of God, equip and renew them for their tasks within the church and for their mission in the world, visit and comfort and care for the people, with special attention to the poor, the sick, the lonely, and those who are oppressed. They should inform the pastor and session of those persons and structures which may need special attention. They should assist in worship. They should cultivate their ability to teach the Bible and may be authorized to supply places which are without the regular ministry of the Word and Sacrament. In specific circumstances and with proper instruction, specific elders may be authorized by the presbytery to administer the Lord's Supper in accord with G-11.0103z. Those duties which all Christians are bound to perform by the law of love are especially incumbent upon elders because of their calling to office and are to be fulfilled by them as official responsibilities.

Duty to Report

An elder shall report to ecclesiastical and civil legal authorities knowledge, gained in the course of service to the church, of harm, or the risk of harm, related to the physical abuse, neglect, and/or sexual molestation or abuse of a minor or an adult who lacks mental capacity when (1) such information is gained outside of privileged communication; or (2) she/he reasonably believes that there is a risk of future physical harm or abuse.

The Role and Responsibility of DEACONS: Book of Order (2007-09) G-6.0400 G-6.0401 The Ministry and Gifts of Deacons

The office of deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of sympathy, witness, and service after the example of Jesus Christ. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, of exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, warm sympathies, and sound judgment should be chosen for this office.

G-6.0402 Responsibilities

It is the duty of deacons, first of all, to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress both within and beyond the community of faith. They shall assume such other duties as may be delegated to them from time to time by the session, such as leading the people in worship through prayers of intercession, reading the Scriptures, presenting the gifts of the people, and assisting with the Lord's Supper.

Duty to Report

Like the elders, the deacons also have a "duty to report". (See Duty to Report above)
