

Your community appreciates you for being

"such an inspiration to be around; for bringing laughter while in the same breath fighting and standing up for what is right for her people." Continue striving to create "perfect peace" within your community - among your family, friends and animals.

